
Job Advertisement – Chief of Organizational Development

Are you ready to make your mark and apply your business know-how to help change lives?
Do you want to help set the groundwork for more growth and success at a vibrant, national company?
Are you up for the challenge of setting your own course in a brand new role?

WJS Canada has experienced significant growth over the past ten years and is looking to hire a Chief of Organizational Development to leverage this strong foundational work to further expand revenues, impact client services and employee satisfaction. This is one of two new senior management roles being created to complement a team of skilled, experienced finance, HR and policy leaders already in place. This role will have responsibilities which span the geographic reach of WJS across BC, Alberta and Ontario.

The Chief of Organizational Development will work closely with the Chief Executive Officer and the National Management Team and will assume a leadership role in WJS business development, management, marketing, quality assurance, information management and technology in order to enhance organizational capacity, build operational efficiencies and ensure the success of company strategic objectives.

The ideal candidate will have a master's degree in business administration or a bachelor's in business and a minimum of 5 years experience in a senior leadership role with a demonstrated ability to promote business and new revenue streams. Excellent collaborative, organizational and communications skills are a must. As are a strong understanding of finance, measures of performance and a proven record of achieving targets. The position requires sound computer skills including advanced Excel and the ability to work flexible hours, including evenings and weekends and some travel. This position can be based in Edmonton, Alberta or Maple Ridge BC. A criminal record check is also required.

This is a unique opportunity for an experienced professional who desires to make a difference and thrives on being the first to develop and set the direction of a new and integral role.

WJS Canada is a national human services company that works hand in hand to strengthen people and communities through outstanding programs to individuals in service, funding agencies and community partners.
